

Eager, Draw Me Back

In the race I once was running
Now I'm only standing still
Almost sleeping
At a crossroads
Yesterday the path was easy
But today, it's all uphill
And this burden once gone
Now reappears
Draw me back
Draw me back
And the echoes of a voice
Far away that once was near
Whisper gently
Words I'm longing to hear
Draw me back
Draw me back
I might dare to point my finger
But my choices brought me here
And I need You near
Turn Your ear
Draw me back
