

Earshot, Not Afraid

Don't leave me alone
I'm feeling so numb
I need you to be here
I need you to call
And everythings wrong
A beautiful shame
And everythings ugly, hazy and gray
And doesn't it hurt?
Trick and control you
Deceive and destroy you
Doesn't it hurt?
Forget and move on
I'm here and im strong
I've got you to blame when
It's finally done

I'm not afraid
Of these feelings here inside
I'm sure someday, I'll let go of all this hate for you
I'll let go of all this hate

Does it make you feel inside
What you never felt before
Did it promise you a life
But that left you all alone
And doesn't it hurt?
Trick and control you
Deceive and destroy you
Doesn't it hurt
Forget and move on
I'm here and im strong
I've got you to blame when
It's finally done

I'm not afraid
Of these feelings here inside
I'm sure someday, I'll let go of all this hate for you
I'll let go of all this hate

Doesn't it hurt...you
Doesn't it feel...sick
Doesn't it hurt...you
Doesn't it feel...sick

And im on my way

I'm not afraid
Of these feelings here inside
I'm sure someday, I'll let go of all this hate for you
I'll let go of all this hate

I won't come around no more
I'll just let you go away
I won't come around no more
I lost my way.
Really lost my way.
Really lost my way.
Really lost my way.
