Earshot, Rotten Inside

Once was a time
I'd give the world to you
But it was never enough
Swore by your hand
But you never told the truth
Thats when I saw myself in you...

I'm rotten inside I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find I'm rotten inside again I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find...

What could I
Do to make everything alright
Left me again
Like I allways thought you'd do
Thats when I saw myself in you...

I'm rotten inside I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find I'm rotten inside again I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find...

That you might find...

And though I try I can't forget The way you looked at me and said...

I'm rotten inside I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find I'm rotten inside again I'm weak & I'm frightened Of the things that you might find...
