

Earshot, Someone

And if you could make up for every single time you lied I'd probably whisper this hello, goodbye and so it begins and gets harder each and every time I start to reminisce

I never seem to ever find someone I can trust someone I believe someone who will never try to bring me to my knees

someday I will find again
someone just like me
someone who will take my time
in understanding me

and if I could make up for every single tear you've cried I'd probly never miss your hand in mine

I never could understand mistakes I repeat again I've been through this so many times

I've stopped searching to take my time and to really clear my head I believe in whats meant to be and I feel its time to know

I'd probly whisper this

never breath
never scream someone who believes never lies to me and would die for me
