Earthsuit, Sky Flashings

Who keeps the balance in suspended skies Supporting Earth with inward thrust Let the audience refocus eyes On all sky flashings in front of us

Who's seen in the midst of unsealing skies It's revelation that all can see And yet our hearts remain hushed inside Mindless of fantasia we enjoy for free

It takes a miracle, kaleidoscope superior Spinning vortex, bleeding shades of night to day

Sovereign pictures center stage Genius of the cosmic craze Days and nights keep on and on God abroad in blended song

In our sky flashings

Who can deny this pure design Emanating views never seen Revealing art to mortal minds Entranced in our phantasmic dreams
