

East West, Disturbed

Lies birthed kill innocence. Child's smile turn upsidedown.
Silence bears the mark you see, bring an end to what's to come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we meet again.

[chorus]

You, You're the reason. You're the one that's stealing my freedom!
Anger scars another back, Child quiet to mask the pain,
Running from a scary man, bring an end to what's the come.
You don't see what I can see, twisted pictures haunting me,
Failure trails so close behind, you'll just wait till we meet again.

[chorous]

You, You're the reason. You're the one that's stealing my freedom!
Refresh me, renew me, refresh me, renew me.
