Ebony Ark, Humans Or Beasts

In the line of evolution Something made stand apart from The beasts surrounding us Made us different

We have the chance to use This world to serve our plans The ability to hate and love To choose the way that we live our lives

This world must change We carry the slab of indifference Time to replace Time to recover The faith

Are we humans or beasts ...?

HUMANKIND LIE AND HATE STEAL AND MURDER ONE OUR GREED WILL KILL OUR PLANET CAN'T MAKE OUT IF WE ARE BEASTS

That man's not white he must die And doesn't believe in my God He must pay for his sins We're not equal

We have no rules at all No mind no sell our friends Killing them, ashamed and tourtured them At whatever cost And break all the laws
