Echo And The Bunnymen, Stars Are Stars

The sky seems full When you're in the cradle The rain will fall And wash your dreams Stars are stars And they shine so hard

Now you spit out the sky Because it's empty and hollow All your dreams Are hanging out to dry Stars are stars And they shine so cold

I saw you climb Shadows on the trees We lost some time After things that never matter

I caught that falling star It cut my hands to pieces Where did I put that box That had my name in it

I saw you climb Shadows on the trees We lost some time After things that never matter

Cards are played
And the clock's real heavy
Say you're numb
Make another day
You came here late
You've gone home early
Who'll remember now
You've gone away
Gone away
Gone away
