Echo & The Bunnymen, Too Young To Kneel

Who's gonna hold you
When you're too scared to feel
Who's gonna cure you
When the pain won't heal
Who's gonna be there
When the world goes wrong
Who's gonna tell you
You're the only one

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

Who's gonna reach you When you can't be caught Who's gonna teach you What you can't be taught Who's gonna beat you When you won't be fought Who's gonna buy you When you can't be bought

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

Who's gonna pray for you
When you're too young to kneel
Who's gonna fake it
When it gets too real
One more question answered
In the falling star
I heard they found
Death on Mars

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

In my blood In my soul In this mind of mine Can your touch Turn me cold Make my glitter shine

Ah ah ah La li
