

Eddy Arnold, No One To Cry To

No one to cry to no one to say goodnight
No one to tell my troubles to
No one to sigh to no one to hold me tight
No one to cheer me when I'm blue

I go home to my lonely room and find there's no one there
And each night I beg of you please answer this one prayer
And give me someone to cry to someone to say I do
Someone to whisper I love you

If I've done something very wrong oh please forgive me dear
Won't you promise from now on I'll always find you near
Please give me someone to cry to someone to say I do
Someone to whisper I love you
