

Eddy Arnold, Sunshine Belongs To Me

Don't sing those old sad songs of the love gone wrong no tears and misery
You can have the rain Mister the sunshine belongs to me

Don't tell me that old tales of the fool who sails upon a lonely sea
You can have the rain Mister the sunshine belongs to me

You can have the clouds of gray you can have the rain
I've found my true love today a love that will remain

So now I've got no use for the lonesome blues our love has set me free
You can have the rain Mister the sunshine belongs to me

You can have the clouds of gray...

So let the sun shine down let the world go round blue sky is all I see
You can have the rain Mister the sunshine belongs to me
You can have the rain Mister the sunshine belongs to me
