Edgewater, One Perfect Something

she says she's sick of all the things that fall she makes.. no sense tonight her minds alright but age sets in cuz she's pushing away her flight of life its out reflecting a thousand miles of light

Just one person
Just one wrong or right
Just one perfect
Just one way

she's pushing away her flight of life It's out reflecting a thousand miles of light

Just one person
Just one wrong or right
Just one perfect
Just one way..
Just one way..
Just one way..
Just one way..

could we compromise just once?(2x)

She says she's sick of all the things that fall she breaks the silence to the world she hates Theres just one person for me Just one wrong or right Just one perfect something Just one way.. Just one way.. Just one way.. Just one way.. Just one way..

Just one perfect Just one perfect
