

Edgewater, Sweet Suffocation

crawling under lost in a perfect sin
what's my addiction
to breathe?

i will sleep
and i will breathe
and i will scream
cause that's a part of me
such a sweet suffocation

you were the victim lost in your innocence what's your ambition
to breathe?

and i will sleep
and i will scream
such a sweet suffocation
it's my addiction
such a sweet suffocation
it's my religion
it's my religion
yeah

it's cold inside
what's it like to take apart me?
to lead you wrong
to kill your dreams
just wake up please

and i will breathe
and i will sleep
and i will scream
such a sweet suffocation
it's my addiction
such a sweet suffocation
it's my religion
it's my religion
yeah
