

Edguy, Hallowed (2000 Version)

Sacred - standing full of pride
Spite on my mind, spite in my brain
Guiding me to fight
Enchained - you pray to be a slave
Rules without sense, no little sense
To dust you will decay

Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate
Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate

Hatred - pushed into a war
Those who blaspheme
Don't join our way
Dying by your sword
Sacred - hallowed be my name
For peace you destroy
Lie and deny
A glorious crusade

Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate
Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate

Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate
Hallowed be my name
Hallowed be my name
God of creation
You beg for damnation
You think you can serve me in hate
