

Edguy, Misguiding Your Life (2000 Version)

A dawn on the run
Nowhere to hide
In a life world of corruption
Insanity has won
I'm living in hate
And preaching destruction

I'm screaming tonight
My vengeance to fight
Has killed all morality
The cries of the toll
And madness control
And liberate my energy - Axe to the wax !

Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate
Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate

Lunacy and rage
Rage in my head
Reign back to back
Come and be my slave
The beauty in your face
Will be fading to black

I'm screaming tonight
My vengeance to fight
Has killed all morality
The cries of the toll
And madness control
And liberate my energy - Axe to the wax !

Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate
Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate

I misguide your life

Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate
Misguiding your life
You'll reach the empire of madness
I will be rife - driven by insanity and hate
