

Edguy, When A Hero Cries

Awake by that dreams of you
Being all alone in the night
Coldness in my empty chamber
Noone here holding me tight

I could take a masquerade
To show you that I don't need to cry
But I can let my tears run away
To show you I'm as weak as a child

So many times you make me cry
But I got no reason to deny
Because I'm here and still alive

(Chorus)
When a hero cries
Emotions arise
The tears in my face
Seem to be a trace of life
When a hero cries

It felt like heaven to me but it was nothing for you
You said that I should forget but it ran me through
And I still can't deny
That you still make me cry

When a hero cries
Emotions arise
When a hero cries
Emotions arise
The tears in my face
Seem to be a trace of life
When a hero cries
When a hero cries
