

Editors, Strawberry Lemonade

(Hey, what you say)
This will never come between us
(Hey, what you say)
It will only wait and die
(Hey, what you say)
We spin and shake forever
(Hey, what you say)
We bleed across the sky

(Hey, what you say)
So use your aggravation
(Hey, what you say)
You let them bring you down
(Now you wanna break it)

(Hey, what you say)
Don't mess with my elation
(Hey, what you say)
Don't put me back to ground

And I know this
It's a failure of mine
But don't ask me to wake up
Only the lonely who know me would call this a sign

(Hey, hey, hey)
I'm not your renegade
Strawberry lemonade
Looking for someone to get lost in
Come may
I'm not your renegade
Help me to demonstrate
All the things I don't believe in

(Hey, what you say)
Can you feel the broken nation
(Hey, what you say)
It will keep out all right
(Hey, what you say)
I am all your vibration
(Hey, what you say)
(Hey, what you say)
Around in

And I know this
It's a failure of mine
But don't ask me to wake up
Only the lonely who know me would call this a sign

(Hey, hey, hey)
I'm not your renegade
Strawberry lemonade
Looking for someone to get lost in
Come may
I'm not your renegade
Help me to demonstrate
All the things I don't believe in

And I know this
It's a failure of mine
But don't ask me to wake up
Only the lonely who know me would call this a sign

(Hey, hey, hey)

I'm not your renegade
Strawberry lemonade
Looking for someone to get lost in
Come may
Oh I'm not your renegade
Help me to navigate
All the things I don't believe in

And I know this
It's a failure of mine
But don't ask me to wake up
Only the lonely who know me would call this a sign
