

Editors, The Law (Featuring Rachel Goswell)

What's the accent? Where you're from?
What are you drinking? I'll get some Thinking about dip into something new
Tell me all about my maker who I'll meet soon

Don't let it get heavy
You are the law
Don't let it get heavy
You are the law
Why won't you come get me?
You are the law

I'm wide and I'm ten feet tall
Tell me my favorites, take my call
Soon can right see through to someone new
Be an angel, just look at you.

Don't let it get heavy
You are the law
Don't let it get heavy
You are the law
Why won't you regret it?
You are the law
