

Edna's Goldfish, Harper & Parker

One day and a longer time
Sixteen, kids, and a boring life
A midnight look set us up for this fall
Autumn nights meant nothing at all
Meant nothing at all

Will you be my lifelong starter?
Will you be my birthday partner?
Eyes meant more than you to me
She meant more than you to me
Harper and Parker

Well can you help me
Learn the things I need to be
Well can you help me
Learn the things I need to be
Well can you help me
Well can you help me
Learn the things that I need to be
Learn the things that I need to be

Well I say "way home, way home"
Well I can't find my way home
Well I say "way home, way home"
It was a long walk home
Harper and Parker

My mind is urging
And my wishes are true
Well I'm happy now
But it has nothing at all to do with you

Well I say "way home, way home"
Well I can't find my home
Well I say "way, way home"
It was a long walk home
It was a long walk home
It was a long walk home
It was a long walk home
It was a long walk home
