

Edward, Married In Vegas

We Got Married In Vegas

Me and my girl went to the preacher
I just had to marry this beautiful creature
Preacher said no way nice try
You're a son of a bitch with the devil in your eye

I turned around and I hissed and I spit
And I told that preacher man he was full of shit
Me and my girl took a little trip
I spun my wheels all the way to the Vegas strip

We got married in Vegas

We had ourselves a vampire wedding
What the heck said I do
Then we bit each other on the neck
Howled at the moon all night
Making love and holding each other tight
Under the Vegas moon

I never felt so alive
I'm glad I never listened to the preacher's jive
Man ain't sin fun
And this sin city is number one

BR

We had a Luxor suite honeymoon
Curtains opened to the moon
Should have heard my lover croon
Should have heard my lover croon
