

Eek-A-Mouse, Palaving

Don't cry no little you don't cry
Just you realize
Those good things in life, you want to achieve
Will soon, come in time

Don't get out of your mind go in a rumbling style (?)
You won't survive
Pray to the almighty god I say
And he will pave your way

Live conscious and look within yourself
Youth man hear what I'm saying

And remember,
helen
And remember,

Palaving, palaving, palaving, palaving

Somee keep starving, kepp starving, keep starving,

While some of them keep bowling, keep bowling

An dem fear and some calling while some of them palaving while some of them are not starving

Just you realize
Those good things in life, you want to achieve
Will soon, come in time

Don't get out of your mind go in a rumbling style (?)
You won't survive
Pray to the almighty god I say
