eels, The Good Old Days

I know I'm not too much of a bargain And you know that's not what you bargained for As the hours turn into days Pretty soon lost in the haze It's up to you and me and who's to say These could be the good old days

I like waking up after a bad dream Makes it feel like life ain't bad Little kids go out to play They're just happy it's another day It's up to you and me and who's to say These could be the good old days

I guess I could be a quiet hero No one knows the good I've done You're not sure, well that's OK 'Cause I am and I'm not afraid It's up to you and me and who's to say These could be the good old days
