

Eggstone, See The Good Things

I came into a bank in New York
I got shot through my heart and my sholder if I had been there five minutes later I might have grown fifty years older see the good things ...
ran out of gas on my way to Orleans
I got stuck in the middle of nowhere I looked around it was a beautiful place the trees are green and the water is blue there
see the good things ...