

Eight Fingers Down, Erasing The Mark

Changing
Even when you never want it
Hoping
That everyone will still be talking
Can't breathe
Choking on my last confession
Standing
One leg's tied but I'm still walking, always
Someone, last chance to be someone
Holding back on no one
Chances,
How many will reach the limit?
Can't win,
Someone always comes out losing
Watching,
One eye's blind but I'm still focused
Big goals,
I won't give up 'till they're accomplished, always
Someone, last chance to be someone
Holding back on no one
Last chance to be someone
Holding back on no one
I can't believe we put up with you
You never did a damn thing to help
Help me out and slit your wrist right now
Now's the time I heard it's popular
Someone, last chance to be someone
Holding back on no one
Last chance to be someone
Holding back on no one [x3]
