

Eksi Ekso, O'God, They've Frozen

Here is the promised winter.
Still it burns with no one who'll deny.
Trying to with intermission.
We've tried to hard to bring down this time.

... darkest, countless sun.
Bitterness on us, oh why?
Darkness. Light still shines.
You and me and you and me.

We've frozen. Countless times.
'til the sun rise over us.
We've frozen. Countless times.
'til the sun rise over us.

Here is the promised winter.

Here is the promised winter.
