

Eksperimentoj, Nocturnal

a cloud of words for now start again with lies

it drives everyone
it drives everyone lost

agonies from nowhere
if I ever need from nowhere

dried up in words
trapped fairyland

if I ever need from nowhere

and endless wish for life stray away from life

come get it now

danced till the end
tranced by the light

if I ever need from nowhere
