ENG:

I born in a cell
According to your law
You put a rope around my neck
Thousand year old decision

You want me to fear like this
Not to hear, see and speak
You stretch me with invisible laces
But I don't care

Sunto del mulo

You tear off my wings
You kill my dreams
You quench the fire
That I light

There's no turning back from here
The fire is lit me
I destroy every cell
I start without no end

Sunto del mulo

I know we are the folk of sin
And that we will be damned
And that when people look at us
There's hatred in their eyes

You raised us here
To be exile, and chased
They despise, hate, beat and spit on us
But my music flies to the sky

Sunto del mulo
Sunto del mulo
I don't beg you anymore
Sunto del mulo

I'm strong I defend my dreams
I'm strong I tear off my chains
