

Ektomorf, You Leech

You fucking leech!

Many times I've been thinking what the fuck you were doin' in my life?
Don't you know appreciation gratitude or friendly relation?

I gave you all I had, all, all, all and I just see now who you are you sucked my blood 'cause you're a leech but now you can only suck my dick!

I am me, I don't change my mind
I only leave my past behind I still have things I can give you but now you can't ripp me off, Fuck you!

Now you pretending you're good, the best modesty and guiltessness now you go on kissing asses you are one of those hypocrites!

But I make you feel afraid do you feel the fear?
Your eyes keep shedding a frightend tear
So I know you well and I know your end but I won't be spoiled by destiny
