

Elan, Made Myself Invisible

I grew a conscience in a pot
And I could promise but it's all talk
Fell off this damn roof
And hit my head on a stone thruth
And baby you passed me by too
I made myself invisible
I made myself invisible
I'll eat it's stale
But won't buy if it's not on sale

I'm way too fragile
Like a broken nail
I lived on a shelf
And I talked to myself
I forget all that I felt
I made myself invisible
I made myself invisible
I made myself invisible
I made myself invisible
