

Elan, Midnight

Between the lines I get it
I read it when you spoke to me last night
Don't think I don't know what's going on here
And be sure I didn't come to steal your life

You leave before midnight,
you're standing in the bright lights
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid to come back to me
You leave before midnight
Standing in the back light
Don't be afraid
Don't be afraid to come back to me

And in disguise I will come to you
And darlin' tonight
You will walk outside your soul
Don't be surprised if I told you
You're not as strong as you were told

'Cause no one's going to know
If you stay or if you go
If you do or if you don't
At least you won't be alone
Won't be alone,

'Cause no one's going to know
If you stay or if you go
If you do or if you don't
At least you won't be alone
Won't be alone,
