

Electric Six, Boy Or Girl

Sharpen up your number two pencils cause the test is beginning You're entering a game of losers and there is no winning Cause people getting nervous, people freak out, people lose control and if you don't like it you can blow it out your blowhole

And the girls are losing their minds, and the boys ain't far behind, and the girls are losing their minds and I'm here

Check in the appropriate box for a boy or girl wondering will it ever stop and who invented this world

Now you see the unavoidable is hard to avoid Wake up in your own drool to find out that your future is destroyed

And the girls are losing their minds, and the boys ain't far behind, and the girls are losing their minds

wondering when will it ever stop and who invented this world

Stare into the mommy's eyes, your future's just around the corner Hi, welcome to big burger can I take your order?
