

Electric Six, I Don't Like You

Someone told me you were cool
But the more I think about it that someone must have been you
Did you actually read your books at school?
'Cause you really don't seem ready for the drop of the other shoe
Wasting all your time howling at a half moon
Adding a little doom and gloom to your doom and gloom

You can do what you do
But I got bigger fish to fry than you
And I-I-I-I don't like you
And I-I-I-I don't want you here
Oh dear

Is that the best that you can do?
'Cause it really doesn't seem like you went ahead and thought it through Yelling 'til you turn blue
But you better call that bluff before it goes ahead and calls you
And I really don't care whose side you're on
This here ain't a sprint, this is a marathon

You can say what you say
But I'd really, really like it if you just went away
And I-I-I-I can't take you
And I-I-I-I don't want you here
Not near

You say:
"Can we talk about this later?"
"Can we talk about this later?"
Blinded by your self-adulation
Deafened by your heinous orations
Hey hey!
Give us a break you big baby!

Solo!

You can do what you do
But I got bigger fish to fry than you
And I-I-I-I don't like you
And I-I-I-I don't want you here
And I-I-I-I can't take you
And I-I-I-I don't want you here
