

Electric Six, I Wish This Song Was Louder

The need to turn it up is overwhelming
I just can't sit still anymore
I wanna break things with my hammer
I wanna start a little war

Isn't that what this little red button here is for?

Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!
Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!

Evil policeman patrol the city
They look for somebody to kill
They've done a little damage
They wanna do some more now
And they probably will
And they probably will
Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!
Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!

One night I had a vision
That the world was taken over
By a race of dirty filthy birds
I dropped to my knees
And I begged for mercy
But they never understand a word
No I was never heard

Hey now cheeky monkey!
Ooh!

Take a ride on the dirty donkey!
Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!
Ooh!

I wish this song was louder!
Ooh!
