

Electric Six, Immolate Me

Japanese, Chinese, it's all the same
I can't tell Corey Feldman from Corey Haim
I'm dying in the dark
Come illuminate me in love
Come illuminate me in love

We can throw your man in the trunk of my car Throw his body down the river keep his head in a jar You're burning me up Girl you come to immolate me tonight you come to immolate me

I had fire in my hands and now it's in the hands of some other man I'm doing fine, don't worry about me
I've got 47 channels on my tv
