

Electric Six, Sexy Trash

Show me... your sexy trash but don't go makin' moves that agitate my rash I'm an American man and I know where I stand I stand with you in your sexy trash

Columbian warlords are rushing to replace all the product that they've moved to the United States with traddaxian crystals from outer space and the filthy residue of your sexy trash your sexy trash

the geopolitical ramifications of lovers when they lie because of vegetarians, animals no longer die we can live as one inside the slaughterhouse of your sexy trash
I'm an American man tonight
