

Electric Six, She's White

I was born a prisoner in your dungeon of flesh
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
Solitary confinement underneath your dress
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
But I broke those shackles, I bent those bars
I got out the van and drove away in my car

I got a new girl now
She don't understand me, but she's getting hot now

And she's white (white)
She is so white
she's white like the light
Never like the night
She's white (white)
She's so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter, tonight.

I was born a hunter in your jungle of sin
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And our love was a sport, but she'd let me win
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And I shot those arrows, I flung those balls
But she returned my fire and shot me in the heart

I got a new girl now
She dont understand me, but she's getting hot now

And she's white (white)
She is so white
She's white like the light
Never like the night
She's white (white)
She is so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter
tonight,
tonight,
Go!

I was born a dancer in your disco of fire
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
And your love was the rhythm, elevating me higher
Oh yeah (yeah, yeah, yeah)
But I scratched that record, I stopped that show
I got on the mic and I let you know

I got a new girl
She's 6 feet tall
I got her number on the wall

And she's white (white)
She's so white
She's white like the light
Never like the night
Shes white (white)
She's so white
I was born to excite her
She could never be whiter
toniiii-iight
