

Electric Six, Your Heat Is Rising

I didn't do anything last year Except for dreaming of doing nothing this year So come put your finger in my ear cause your heat is rising
And your heeeeeeeeeeeeeeat is rising

Any time you wanna leave your lover for me
Would be a good time to leave your lover for me
So come lose your ooze upon my knee
Cause your heat is rising
And your heeeeeeeeeeeeeeat is rising

Cause fires like these enable thieves
to steal from your mind
And everything you once believed you must leave it all behind
Cause your heat, heat is rising
And your heeeeeeeeeeeeeeat is rising

Come young children one by one
And stare directly into the sun Look in my eyes, and point your steely gun into my evil horizon
Cause your heat is rising

And fires like these enable thieves
to steal from your mind
And everything you once believed
you must leave it all behind
Cause your heat, heat is rising
And your heeeeeeeeeeeeeeat is rising
