

Electrico, I Want You

I just wanna see the weather
But you, you've got my shoes
It feels so wrong, it feels so right
To come home to you late at night
But Baby, where are you now?

But when you come home baby
I know somehow that your eyes have gone astray
And when you come back baby
You'll just look back and say I want you

Baby, I'm wanting to kiss you honey bun

It feels just like you know this quite as well
It still feels wrong, feels so right
To come home to you late at night
But baby, where are you now?

But when you come home baby
I know somehow that your eyes have gone astray
And when you come back baby
You'll just look back and say I want you

I want you ..
(Then give me my goddamn shoes)
