

Element Of Crime, As Long As I Love You

Springtime on the backseat of a small car
It's their first time they are childhood sweethearts
They are working hard to get it done
Afterwards he cannot find his shoes
But never mind as long as I love you
And as long as you love me, too

Wedding rings and five children
And a flat on the 16th floor of a new building
Daddy takes his youngest on his knees look
Ruined is Daddy's Sunday suit
But never mind as long as I love you
And as long as you love me, too

Broken things in the kitchen
Once again he's drunk once again she wants to ditch him
Lots of sobs and cries
And they beat each other black and blue
But never mind as long as I love you
And as long as you love me, too
