

Element Of Crime, He's Gone

She don't know what to think of that, finds herself in an empty flat
He's gone away

Was there anything wrong she's done?
She don't know, just another one,
who's gone away

Too much love, that's what he said, too much love, he can't stand that Too much love, she drives him mad, too much love, that's what he said
He's gone

His letter says: I miss you so
Please understand, I had to go
He's gone away

She writes back: Don't give me that!
You're a coward, kiss my ass!
He's gone away
