

Elen Levon, Over My Head

I think of you every time I close my eyes
Can't fall asleep, it's cause of you
That I remind myself of who I wanna be
You felt it, too, I thought you said
But still, there is no guarantee
If someone new ain't in your bed, oh, well, hello, it's sad

I want you out of my mind
But it's out of my hands
From my toes to my eyes
How much can a heart extend
Get over all those words you said
I want you out of my mind
But I'm in over my head

Over my head
So here we go again, around again
And I still feel the same
But I can't hope today will be the day
You move out of my brain
But you don't know this song's about you
And the next one will be, too
I'm writing all about an imagine love of you

I want you out of my mind
But it's out of my hands
From my toes to my eyes
How much can a heart extend
Get over all those words you said
I want you out of my mind
But I'm in over my head

Over my head

I want you out of my mind
But it's out of my hands
From my toes to my eyes
How much can a heart extend
Get over all those words you said
I want you out of my mind
But I'm in over my head

Over my head
Over my head
