

Elevation, Maybe Tomorrow

Maybe tomorrow we'll feel right
Maybe the planets will align
Don't lose my picture, we'll need it again next time, I know
Maybe tomorrow

This is the same old, same old story
Man meets girl but boy takes over
Please don't forget me, you'll need me again next time, I know
Maybe tomorrow

I believe in our romances
Cause I believe in second glances
I believe I'll win you over
And you won't go, cause I believe
Maybe tomorrow

Don't think I'll lose you over night
Right now our timing's just not right
I'm crossing my fingers, cause this is the only prayer, I know
Maybe tomorrow

I believe in our romances
Cause I believe in second glances
I believe I'll win you over
And you won't go, cause I believe
Maybe tomorrow

Sooner or later is better than never
I'll be with you sometime, I'll be with you sometime
Sooner or later is better than never
I'll be with you sometime soon

I believe in our romances
Cause I believe in second glances
I believe I'll win you over
And you won't go, cause I believe

Tomorrow I'll make you believe
Yeah, I'll make you believe
I'll make you believe
I'll make you believe
