

Elevation, So Into You

I've been clumsy
Acting human
Writing nonsense
Cursing all we've ever been
I've ignored you
While my head was in the clouds
If I beg you
Will you stay to hear me out
I surrender, I surrender

Can you save me
From this tragedy of words
Cause I'll never make it through
I'm still screaming
I won't stop until this tragedy's forgotten
Cause I'm so into you

How ironic
How left handed
I'm sure that it's amusing
To watch me stranded
God it plagues me
Am I normal
I've been drenched in consequence
And I am ready to be free
I surrender, I surrender

Can you save me
From this tragedy of words
Cause I'll never make it through
I'm still screaming
I won't stop until this tragedy's forgotten
Cause I'm so into you

I had it all
And I surrendered it
I never knew you were the best part of it
I wanna get back
Into you
I had it all
And I surrendered it
I never knew you were the best part of it
I'm so sorry
And I'm so into you
