

Eliana Burki, Alpine Rock

I had a dream that you'll win tonight
And I'll be there to make it alright
You're the guys that keep you
Feet on the ground

Fighting strong with a spirit of fire
You're the team that's my desire
And we all believe in you
And we all believe in you

The time is now
The dreaming's done
To win the gold
There's only one

We'll fly the flag
We're here for you
Just get your goal
And we love you
