

Elisa, Gift (Lotus Version)

In the other room, I'm the other girl just another one of your children it's this other face this other name I'm the other girl

want to be in the other room when you're calling me, yes

your gift, receiving through this body of mine... alive... receiving your gift, growing into this body of mine... and alive... receiving

I am bleeding joy, still still peaceful I am waiting for patience I live something beautiful I'm thinking but not too fast I'm still here, still here

Oh yeah, want to be in the other room
when you're calling me, yes When you're calling me, yeah

body of mine... is alive... receiving your gift, it is growing into this body of mine... is alive... so alive my secrets are now things that I can touch it must be complicity now I'm going to embrace this man without face oh yeah just fly

this is love...
