

Elisa Peimer, Find My Way Home

So I sail on stormy weather
So I ride in restless nights
I drive down the highway
Both hands on the wheel
And I know that I'm making perfect time

So I sail on the sea with the stars as my guide
And I know that it's only a matter of time
Till my head will believe what my heart can't deny
And I'll finally find my way home
Yes I'll finally find my way home

I don't suffer for solutions
I don't lie awake at night
Why live for tomorrow
Or dream of yesterday
Today is the only chance in sight

So I sail on the sea with the stars as my guide
And I know that it's only a matter of time
Till my head will believe what my heart can't deny
And I'll finally find my way home
Yes I'll finally find my way

It's so very ordinary to feel lost alone at sea
Absolution from confusion is the only place you want to be

So I sail on the sea with the stars as my guide
And I know that it's only a matter of time
Till my head will believe what my heart can't deny
And I'll finally find my way home
Yes I'll finally find my way

So I sail on the sea with the stars as my guide
And I know that it's only a matter of time
Till my head will believe what my heart can't deny
And I'll finally find my way home
Yes I'll finally find my way home
