

Elisa, Rainbow (Soundtrack Live)

You are not an enemy anymore there's a ray of light upon your face now and I can look into your eyes and I never thought it could be so simple you can hear the music with no sounds you can heal my heart without me knowing and I can cry in front of you 'cause you're not afraid to face my weakness so when you'll wake up some morning rain will wash away your pain when you'll wake up some morning rain will wash away your pain

'cause it never began for us It'll never end for us
oh it never began for us It'll never end for us

you are not an enemy to me there's a ray of light upon your face now you see It'll be all new again there is something else just round the corner

so when you'll wake up some morning rain will wash away your pain
so when you'll wake up some morning rain will wash away your pain

'cause it never began for us
It'll never end for us
oh it never began for us
It'll never end for us

I was looking for a place to stay are you looking for a place to stay?
To stay

no it never began for us It'll never end for us
oh it never began for us
It'll never end for us

It'll never end for us
oh it never began for us and it'll never end for us
