

Elise Estrada, Crash And Burn

Im sorry babe.

How could I be such an idiot?

We're talkin through the door, please open it,

Im down on my knees & the neighbors can see, that I regret so desperately,

Baby if you please just hear me out,

I really hope to god i can work it out,

Im sick to the skin, just let me in,

You cant believe what i must've been.

I know, that your hurting,

I know, i was wrong,

I know that for certain, you know we belong,

Please let me see you, please open up,

I beg your forgiveness dont let us fall.

Give me one more chance,

Before we crash and burn,

Give me one more chance before the point of no return,

I'd give everything, to make it good again,

I'd do anything to get out of this tailspin,

Give me one more chance before, before we crash and burn.

Please.

Please baby, don't leave me standing here,

Makeup runnin' black in a stream of tears,

I think what we had, lets get it back cause,

Losin' you's gonna drive me mad.

Please baby, baby, let me come inside,

We can talk it out, where its warm and dry,

I really need you to look into my eyes,

I really want you to believe me when I apologize.

Give me one more chance,

Before we crash and burn,

Give me one more chance, before the point of no return,

Id give everything, to make it good again,

Id do anything to get out of this tailspin,

Give me one more chance before, before we crash and burn.

Hmmmm. Before we crash and burn.
