

Elk City, You Got Me

Don't need a spotlight in a crowded room.
Just hear the message in this little tune.
You got me and it's all that you need this time.

Don't need an orchestra to hum a tune.
This time around, well, only two will do.
You got me and it's all that you need this time.

All this time, the dark hours, day after day.
When there are showers, we will laugh them away.

So if you're feeling lonely and alone,
Put down your sorrows and pick up the phone
You got me and it's all that you need this time.

Don't need approval from aristocrats.
Don't need to bother with any of that.
You got me and it's all that you need this time.

Ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba, ba.
