

Ella Eyre, Even If

I took it all for granted
I know what I did
What I've become
But even you
You did some damage
All of those things
That you used to say

It's funny how
The pic' I have
It's smaller now
Smaller than it was before
But baby now I figured out
That all that we could talk about
Was more than more

Even if we'll never find the time
And even if we'll never get it right
I know I am glad I was able
To be by your side
And even if the stars won't align
You know where I am
You know where I am

We've never had it easy
But you had your ways
And I sure had mine
And only you could ever see it
See through the worst
The worst I've done

It's funny how
The bigger it gets
It's nothing now
Nothing how it was back then
If only I have realised
That all that we have compromised
Was all real

Even if we'll never find the time
And even if we'll never get it right
I know I am glad I was able
To be by your side
And even if the stars won't align
You know where I am
You know where I am

But all that could matter
Is still somewhere here
Pieces were scattered
Some are still near
I said I would never
Hold on to you
But you hold on to me

Even if we'll never find the time
And even if we'll never get it right
I know I am glad I was able
To be by your side
And even if the stars won't align
You know where I am
